RRR Rally Loyd Park Grand Prairie, TX

Everyone attending enjoyed the Rally at Loyd Park on Joe Pool Lake in Grand Prairie, Texas. There were a lot of games learned both new & old; campfire circles with fun conversations; and twin grandbabies to enjoy. Pam and Dean’s daughter and their twin grandsons joined us for a meal. In addition, Dean and Pam’s cousins were our guests. They have enjoyed traveling for years and may like to join our Red River Rovers Chapter.

Thursday evening’s dinner was at a local Italian

Restaurant. Both food and drink were delicious.

Friday night the group enjoyed Tacos with all the fixings and Apple Pie with Blue Bell Ice Cream for dessert.

The Breakfast Guys worked their magic Saturday morning and prepared a breakfast of Bacon, sausage, eggs and pancakes. Even with the rain they were not deterred from providing a delicious breakfast.

After Saturday's breakfast many went shopping. The ladies hit the town while the guys decided to take a ride to an outside trader's market braving rain and mud.

Saturday evening's dinner was a variety of proteins, veggies, mushrooms, and potatoes wrapped in a foil packet with butter and cooked over a hot coal grill. They were awesome and reminiscent of Scout meals. A dessert of S'Mores followed (marshmallow, chocolate and graham crackers) also cooked over an open fire.

Nickie Gardner's little dog was very calm for his first rally. The pups also enjoy the open fire.

All attending would like to include one or two "pavilion" campgrounds each year. The Vineyards at Lake Grapevine would be a great choice.

President’s Message

The first completely outdoor rally is in the books! The Loyd Park outing was a huge success. The meals were tasty and with a little help from everyone, we were able to serve outdoors under a large pavilion. Our Saturday morning breakfast was delicious even with some rain falling around us. I found that everyone stayed outside the majority of the time sitting around talking and playing various games. I took a poll and I believe it was unanimous that we should incorporate this style of rally a couple of times each year. I am looking forward to the May rally in my hometown of Waxahachie, Texas.
