Lane; Tressa, Joseph & Jenson Malcolmson and Shirley Nelson.

The Rally Hosts were Nickie and Raymon Gardner and Terri and Randy Lane. We all enjoyed the RV Resort and Rally Room. There were many games played in the Rally Room. The Gardners and Duvalls arrived on Wednesday, May 13th and enjoyed pizza and Bingo sponsored by the RV Resort in the Rally Room.

On Friday, May 15th, Connie Carrington and Pam Settlemyer led a shopping trip and luncheon at John's Place in the historic Rogers Hotel on the square in Waxahachie. They were joined by Kathy Duvall, Sharon Gregory, Faye Lackey, Terri Lane, LuAnn Marchisin and Linda Nicodemus. Dean Settlemyer hosted a trip to Top Golf and a tour of Waxahachie that was thoroughly enjoyed by Wendell Carrington, Pat Duvall, David Lackey, Randy Lane and Ernie Marchisin.

On Friday evening, Nickie and Raymon Gardner served a scrumptious dinner of Onion Chicken, Green Beans, Creamed Corn and Apple or Cherry Dump Cake with Vanilla Ice Cream. We welcomed Shirley Nelson, Bret Lane and Jaxon Lane (Son and Grandson of Terri and Randy Lane) and Tressa, Joseph and Jenson Malcolmson (Daughter and Grandsons of Pam and Dean Settlemyer). Three rounds of Card Bingo followed dinner. The lucky winners were Connie Carrington, Kathy Duvall and Ernie Marchisin. Card games followed in the Rally Room.

On Saturday morning, May 16th, the Breakfast Boys, Pat Duvall, David Lackey, Jaxon Lane and Randy Lane prepared a hearty breakfast of Sausage, Scrambled Eggs, Biscuits, Gravy, Strawberries, Blueberries, Coffee and Juices. Rick Dennis was a surprise guest and enjoyed catching up with everyone.

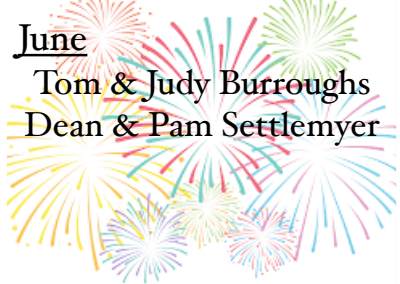

Everyone engaged themselves in various activities until we gathered for dinner. We all enjoyed Gumbo, Rice, Garlic Bread and Salad followed by Peach Bread Pudding. Afterwards, Nickie Gardner and Pam Settlemyer hosted a Talent Show filled with Music, Tall Tales, Jokes and Classic Commercials. Thank You,

President’s Message

Rally Hosts are still needed...

I hope this finds all of my fellow Rovers well. We just finished a great rally in Waxahachie. We have four more rallies this year with our 25th Anniversary rally starting June 8. I know our host team of Bill and Shirley Parish along with David and Faye Lackey will make it memorable.

The September rally in Rusk will be hosted by Dean and Pam Settlemyer along with Tom and Sandy Woodling. I want to thank Luke and Linda Nicodemus for signing up to host at Athens in October. We need two more volunteers to complete this rally host team.

The last rally of the year in Victoria at another new and exciting location is available for all four host team members. Please volunteer and let Randy Lane, our Rally Master, know your interest in filling these last few opportunities to host in 2026.

Dean Settlemyer, President

May Rally Article continues...

Nickie and Pam. Everyone enjoyed the fun, memories and laughter! Card games followed in the Rally Room.

On Sunday morning, May 17th, a delicious breakfast of Sausage, Scrambled Eggs, Biscuits, Gravy, Yogurt, Muffins, Donuts, Cinnamon Rolls, Fruit, Coffee and Juices were enjoyed. Wendell Carrington, our world renown traveling preacher, gave a beautiful devotional. He reminded us from Psalm 27 that we all face adversities in our lives. The Lord is our salvation. Why should we fear? Wait on the Lord and be of good courage. Jesus is our Light and Salvation. Slow down and let God speak to our hearts. We always have God we can turn to in our time of need.

After a closing prayer, we wished everyone safe travels and Linda Nicodemus reminded us to fill out the registration form, book our site with the Choctaw RV Park and send the $50 per person Rally Fee to her for our June 8-11th Anniversary Rally. Please encourage former Red River Rovers and Guests to join us for our Anniversary Celebration!

Terri Lane, Wagon Master

A Note from Dick Greener

Red River Rovers Chapter,

It is a very sad day that I must write this letter. I moved to Oklahoma to live with my daughter and son-in-law in August of 2022, as I could no longer live alone due to two strokes caused by the Covid vaccine I got the previous year.

To join your RV group for each rally, I would get a hotel near the campground and drive over for activities. Each year this became more and more difficult. None of the hotels have bellmen, so I would find a maintenance man to help me carry my things.

I went to Mission, Texas the Winters of 2024, 2025 and 2026 for three months and stayed in a park model. I met some wonderful neighbors who helped me, but each Winter became more of a challenge. I will not be able to enjoy Mission next year.

My balance has deteriorated significantly over the last few years and greatly affects what I can pick up and carry. My doctor and daughter, who is a doctor, agree I will need a wheelchair in my home before too long. I still drive, but not as far and enjoy showing my classic car locally.

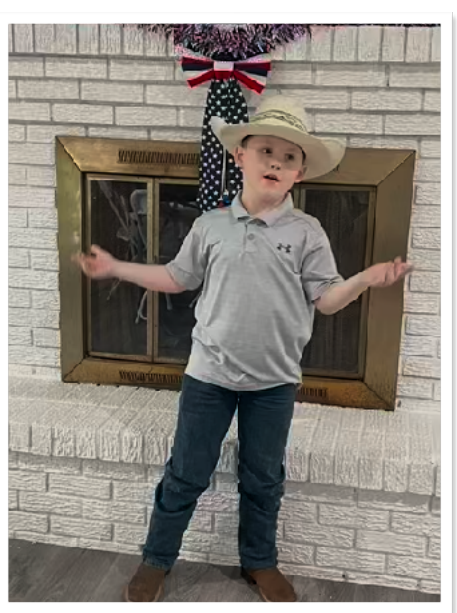

I have struggled with this decision for several months, but the sad truth is I will no longer be able to attend rallies. I have gotten to know so many wonderful folks in the Red River Rovers and will miss all of you. I will always remember your friendship and camaraderie. I wish you all the very best for continued great rallies. Please don't hesitate to call or email and if you are in the Lawton, Oklahoma area, stop by and visit.

All the Best, Dick Greener
